71-03-07-01. Employer contribution. Each employer must submit to the board the full monthly premium amount for each eligible employee enrolled in the group insurance plan. The employer must verify the number of eligible employees and the level of coverage for each. An employee's coverage must end the month after termination of employment. When an employee transfers from one enrolled employer to another, the new employer is responsible for submitting the premium for the first of the month following employment.

History: Effective June 1, 1996.

General Authority: NDCC 54-52-04, 54-52.1-03.1

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-52.1-03.1

71-03-07-02. Information to employee. Each employer shall inform each eligible employee of the employee's right to group insurance and the process necessary to enroll. The employer shall provide each eligible employee such forms as necessary to enroll in the group insurance program.

History: Effective June 1, 1996.

General Authority: NDCC 54-52-04, 54-52.1-03.1

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-52.1-03, 54-52.1-03.1

71-03-07-03. Collecting employee contributions. Each employer shall collect any employee contribution due and submit it with any employer contribution to the retirement board each month. When an employee on an approved leave of absence requests to continue in the group, the employer shall collect the full amount of the premium from the employee each month and remit it to the retirement board. The minimum employer contribution will be determined by the retirement board and must be consistently applied to all eligible employees.

History: Effective June 1, 1996; amended effective May 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-52-04, 54-52.1-03.1

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-52.1-03, 54-52.1-03.1

71-03-07-04. Termination of employment. Each employer shall notify the retirement board when an eligible employee terminates employment. The retirement board shall inform the terminating employee of options available to the employee for continuation of coverage.

History: Effective June 1, 1996.

General Authority: NDCC 54-52-04, 54-52.1-03.1

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-52.1-03, 54-52.1-03.1

71-03-07-05. Premium for basic term life insurance. A political subdivision that elects to participate in the group life insurance program shall pay to the retirement board the full premium for the basic term life insurance for each of its eligible employees.

History: Effective June 1, 1996.

General Authority: NDCC 54-52-04, 54-52.1-03.1

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-52.1-02, 54-52.1-03.1

71-03-07-06. Requirements for enrolling temporary employees and paid members of political subdivision boards, commissions, or associations. Each employer shall inform temporary employees and the paid members of its board, commission, or association of their right to the group insurance plan and the process necessary to enroll. Each employer shall provide each eligible member such forms as necessary to enroll in the group insurance plan. Each employer shall collect any member contribution due and submit it along with any employer contribution to the retirement board each month. The minimum employer contribution will be determined by the retirement board. The political subdivision may not make a contribution for coverage for temporary employees. Each employer shall notify the retirement board when an eligible member is no longer eligible for the group insurance plan. The retirement board shall inform such member of options available for continuation of coverage.

History: Effective June 1, 1996; amended effective May 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-52-04, 54-52.1-03.1

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-52.1-02, 54-52.1-03, 54-52.1-03.1

71-03-07-07. Minimum requirements for political subdivisions. An enrolled political subdivision must extend the benefits of the group insurance program to its eligible employees and paid members of its board, commission, or association subject to minimum requirements established by the retirement board and a minimum period of participation of sixty months. If the political subdivision withdraws from participation before completing sixty months of participation, the political subdivision must make payment to the retirement board equal to the expenses incurred on behalf of that political subdivision's employees which exceed the income received by the retirement board on behalf of that political subdivision's employees during the time of participation. For purposes of this section:

1. "Expenses incurred" means:

- a. Claims incurred by the political subdivision during the enrolled period and paid during or within three months after the enrolled period and includes capitated payments to providers;
 - b. Reasonable administrative expenses as incurred by the public employees retirement system and the claims administrator as set forth in the master contract; and
 - c. The cost of any premium buy-down provided.
2. "Income received" means all premiums paid by the political subdivision to the retirement board.

Full payment is due within three months after receipt of notice from the executive director, unless an alternative payment schedule has been approved by the retirement board. A late payment charge must be assessed on all money due on an account at a rate of one and three-fourths percent per month.
